INFORMATION REPORT CD NO. 25X1A

DATE DISTR 22 JUN 50 Argentina/Yugoslavia COUNTRY Expected Recall to Belgrade of Yugoslav Minister NO. OF PAGES SUBJECT to Argentina NO. OF ENCLS. 25X1A PLACE ACQUIRED CONFIDENTIAL 25X1A SUPPLEMENT TO DATE OF REPORT NO. INFO.

25X1X

It has been reported that Yugoslav Minister to Argentina Marijan Stilinovic, who arrived in Buenos Aires 7 March 1950, may soon be recalled to Belgrade. Although he presented his credentials to President Peron on 13 April, Stilinovic had not as of 10 May actually taken charge of the Legation in Buenos Aires, according to source. Petar Seguic, Counselor of the Yugoslav Legation, had continued to sign as Charge d'Affaires.

Source's contacts believe that there may be some connection between the possible recall of Stilinovic to Belgrade and the return to Belgrade of Cojko Bozovic*, First Secretary and UDE representative of the Legation, who departed Buenos Aires 21 April for Belgrade. Bozovic was expected to have returned to Buenos Aires by the end of May.
